RedCube Agency, the leading Brand Public Relations Agency, has been awarded the Villas Valriche account. Villas Valriche is a luxury residential golf estate which is being developed in the Domaine de Bel Ombre area of Mauritius.

This development allows foreigners to purchase freehold villas. The Estate consists of 288 Mauritian plantation style villas, set in approximately 200 hectares of lush landscaped grounds with beach views.

Surrounding the Estate is the recently completed Peter Matkovich designed, 18-hole championship golf course as well as the Valriche Nature Reserve, from which the Estate gets its name.
